

D'ALMAINE

BUSINESS PORTRAITS

PHOTOGRAPHY

Gail is one of the most creative, professional photographers I have worked with. She immediately puts her clients at ease with her warmth and humour. Consistent, reliable and always produces stunning photographs, it is my pleasure to recommend D'Almaine photography.

"I can't thank Gail enough for the work she's done for me. Over the last few years she's dragged me, kicking and screaming (hate having my photo taken!) to various locations, has put up with a load of whining and sulking and had still managed to take wonderful shots for all my business needs. She's also done fabulous, five star photography and design for my book covers, both fiction and non-fiction. The woman has the patience of a saint, the skills of an award winner and more than her fair share of dogged determination - the job's not done until it meets her incredibly high standards."
